PERFORMS a variety of tasks related to the incoming and outgoing mail and package operations. The Postal Services Supervisor is responsible for operating a mail sorting and package distribution facility; which provides mail services and ensures that mail services comply with federal postal rules and regulations in the receipt; handling; and distribution of all classes of mail. Maintains accurate records of the volume and types of outgoing mail processed. Responds to inquiries and resolves complaints.