JOB SUMMARY

Provides management of key areas of the department; including operations; finance; or human resources management. Responsible for planning; overseeing special projects; compiling reports; researching; and analyzing specific operational procedures and problems.