JOB SUMMARY

Under minimal supervision this position is responsible for the coordination of a function(s) for a program. Exercises considerable discretion and independent judgement to interpret policy and procedures and to answer complex questions. Requires thorough knowledge of office practices and procedures in order to perform complex programmatic support duties; assists the supervisor on non-routine administrative duties; and may supervise the work of other employees.