Manages and monitors daily cash management transactions; reports cash operation activities; and executes borrowing/investment transactions. Ensures adequate liquidity and proper short-term investments. Prepares cash flow projections. Additional responsibilities include development of bank relationships; determination of short-term cash to be invested and anticipation of short-term borrowing needs.