A Senior Data Center Operator is an experienced operator that monitors critical production systems; applications; and infrastructure components. Helps ensure continued operations by 1st level troubleshooting; sending alert notifications to on-call systems administrators; and providing remote hands to help restore operations. Monitors and ensures that scheduled jobs (including backups) are done per documented procedures. Maintains physical security of servers and devices by ensuring only authorized individuals are granted access to the Data Center; appropriate racks; and servers.