JOB SUMMARY

Responsible for activities related to the care and restoration of objects. Works under the Chief Registrar to develop a conservation plan for objects in the collection according to the best practices of the American Institute of Conservators (AIC). Supervises other conservators and conservation technicians; as needed.