JOB SUMMARY

Develops; leads; and oversees all curatorial activities for the museum in line with its mission and strategic goals and in accordance to standards and best practices of the American Alliance of Museums (AAM) and American Association of Museum Directors (AAMD). Directs and oversees the planning of exhibition programs; research; and scholarships. Coordinates the allocation of resources to achieve curatorial goals. Participates in the efforts to promote and build the museum's collection and acquisitions funds. Maintains considerable public and donor contact. Supervises several curatorial departme