JOB SUMMARY

Assists in the leadership and management of educational activities. Conceives, develops, and implements programs that engage with school and community groups. Coordinates and directs the allocation of resources to produce educational programs. Participates in the efforts to promote museum programs and build the museum's audience. Supervises one or more educational staff, as needed.