JOB SUMMARY

Oversees and performs all aspects of exhibition preparation from installation to de-installation according to museum best practices and technical expertise. Plans and directs the fabrication or procurement of exhibition pedestals; props; temporary walls; and other display designs. Ensures working areas are safe; healthy; and maintained according to OSHA standards and FIU's safety guidelines. Supervises preparatory staff; contractors; and vendors.