JOB SUMMARY

The Junior Information Architect assists in the creation of the user experience for websites; intranets; and web applications. Assists in execution of interaction strategies in sync with business and user goals developing navigation and site structure; organizing content; and tirelessly advocating the rights of real people as users. Assists with usability assessments.