JOB SUMMARY

Responsible for the administrative research process for an assigned unit/department. This includes large and complex pre-award and post-award activities of grants and contracts awarded to the University. Advises Principal Investigators on the most effective ways to achieve an effective quality proposal and coordinates a timely submission process; ensuring appropriate approvals. Provides compliance/oversight by monitoring budgets and spending; approves expenditures; and provides ethical management of funds.