JOB SUMMARY

Oversees the Laboratory Animal Research Program along with serving as the Attending Veterinarian for all the animals in the laboratory; including 24-hour emergency care. Oversees the quality assurance of the animal care and use program. Works with Environmental Health and Safety in developing an occupational health program and also creates educational material about the potential hazards of using animals. Leads the Assessment and Accreditation of Laboratory Animal Care International (AALAC) program description submission and obtains accreditation.