JOB SUMMARY

Under the supervision of the Chief University Compliance Officer; the Compliance Analyst manages; develops; implements; and monitors policies; procedures; processes; training; corrective action plans; and overall operations to ensure the execution of the compliance framework that aligns with the Federal Sentencing Guidelines; laws; regulations; and internal policies established by the University. This position involves embedding a culture of compliance and integrity into the University community and provides administrative support to the Office of University Compliance and Integrity (Compliance...