Job Summary

Reports to the University Chief Compliance Officer; this position supports the execution of the compliance framework that aligns with the Federal Sentencing Guidelines; laws; regulations; and internal policies established by the University. This position involves embedding a culture of compliance and integrity into the University community and leads efforts to support units on the development of University policies; procedures; and guidelines by creating tools and resources supporting compliance and a culture of integrity.