JOB SUMMARY

Provides advice and counseling in a specialized area of law involving complex legal issues of substantial importance to the University. Handles representation of the University in civil actions or administrative proceedings in area of expertise.