This is an academic support position within the Student-Athlete Academic Center. The Learning Specialist reports to the Associate Director for SAAC and is charged with developing and implementing individualized academic support plans for a defined group of student-athletes. Monitors their academic progress on a continual basis. Potential to work with students with high academic risk as well as students with identified learning disabilities. This position requires consistent and open communication with coaches and academic counseling staff and a thorough understanding of NCAA and Conference USA.