JOB SUMMARY

The Registered Dietitian is responsible for providing nutrition services which includes nutrition counseling and working with the nutrition team to develop and deliver nutrition programming for students; staff; and faculty to fulfill the University's mission.