JOB SUMMARY

Assists with the development of wellness programs and health education program objectives identifying health education needs; campaigns; and action plans. Conducts one-on-one consultations. Assists with the development of health education curriculums; including marketing materials. Coordinates and conducts health promotion and outreach activities and events. Represents Student Health Services at university/community events and on committees.