Under direct supervision; the Parking Supervisor will be responsible for managing the day-to-day operations in the field. This position requires the supervision of others.