The Web Developer II is responsible for planning; development; implementation; and support of web-based applications. The Web Developer II is also responsible for coordinating and communicating with clients and managing all aspects of their projects. The Web Developer II will assist in directing junior programmers on projects. Works with the director (and/or assistant director) and senior team members to develop web strategies for the university.