Under direction; plans; manages; and completes projects for the Division of Information Technology (IT) involving a wide variety of technologies and functional areas. Uses project management skills to manage project roles; identify resource requirements; develop project plans; and ensure project goals and objectives are met. Provides customer satisfaction and ensures effective communications and relationships between customers and project team members are maintained.