The Database Administrator II manages, maintains, and supports different types of database management systems related to the operational needs of a department and/or a division.