JOB SUMMARY

The Database Administrator III designs; implements; maintains; and manages moderately complex databases to support database management systems related to the operational needs of a department and/or a division. The incumbent in this position is competent to work on most phases of database administration and required to provide instruction and guidance to junior database administrators.