The Assistant Director of the Aquatics Center is responsible for management and programming associated with the Aquatics Center. Provides a safe, well-maintained, and adequately staffed environment and a comprehensive aquatic program that enhances the mission of the University. The Assistant Director Aquatics hires, trains, supervises, and evaluates special events/programs aquatic staff. Assists with long-range planning and assessment; budget development; procurement for the Aquatics Center; risk management; aquatic operations training; maintenance of accurate records and the development of st