JOB SUMMARY

Coordinates HR programs and activities to ensure consistent and accurate application of human resources policies and practices. Develops working relationships with university business units; as well as community resources to facilitate human resources activities. Works in a team-based collaborative environment to meet dynamic and ever changing customer needs.