The Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) provides paid sick leave or expanded family and medical leave for specified reasons related to COVID-19. You could qualify for emergency sick time under the FFCRA if you are unable to work or telework due to a need for leave of absence because you are:

1. Subject to a Federal, state or local quarantine or isolation related to COVID-19.
2. Have been advised by a health care provider to self-quarantine related to COVID-19.
3. Experiencing COVID-19 symptoms and is seeking a medical diagnosis.
4. Caring for an individual subject to an order to self-quarantine or caring for a child whose school or place of care is closed (or child care provider is unavailable) for reasons related to COVID-19.
5. Experiencing any other substantially similar condition specified by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, in consultation with the Secretaries of Labor and Treasury.
